

EB Cross Country Adventure Ride 2013 – Riding for EB Children

You've probably never heard of a skin disorder called Epidermolysis Bullosa (EB) – but lots of Australian kids live with this painful condition every day. I want to help them live a life free from pain, and you can help.

These children have very fragile skin. Their skin blisters, peels and falls away at the slightest touch. They are bandaged every day to heal and protect their wounds. They need to have their bandages peeled off before every shower and have new blisters popped every morning. It's a cruel, genetic disorder and currently there is no cure. So until the researchers find one, I am doing what I can to raise money to help these kids get the best quality nursing care from the National EB Nurse Program, run by the charity DEBRA Australia.

How Can You Help?

Gary Mourilyan

You can sponsor me! I am participating in a 14-day 4500 km dirt bike ride around Queensland to raise money for, and awareness of, DEBRA Australia and EB. I need to raise as much money as I can leading up to the ride which begins on 13th April 2013.

Any amount that you pledge will be donated to DEBRA Australia's EB Nurse Program and is tax deductible.

Please help me to help these kids. Your support is greatly appreciated!

If sending a cheque please complete the form below and send it with your donation so that they know who you are sponsoring. To donate online go to www.debra.org.au and follow the Donate link; once you have donated, email secretary@debra.org.au to let DEBRA know that your donation is to sponsor me!

Head to www.ebcrosscountry.com.au or email secretary@debra.org.au for more details.

If sending a cheque, please make your cheque payable to DEBRA Australia and include the following sponsor form with your cheque. If you would prefer to make an easy, safe online payment on DEBRA's website, go to www.debra.org.au click on the Donate link, fill in the donation form online – and if you donate online, please also email secretary@debra.org.au and tell us which rider your donation is linked to.
